

The Conservation Guest Scholar Program

The Conservation Guest Scholar Program at the Getty Conservation Institute supports new ideas and perspectives in the field of conservation, with an emphasis on the visual arts (including sites, buildings, and objects) and the theoretical underpinnings of the field. The program provides an opportunity for professionals to pursue scholarly research in an interdisciplinary manner across traditional boundaries in areas of wide general interest to the international conservation community. These grants are for established conservators, scientists, and professionals who have attained distinction in conservation and allied fields. Applications are welcome from researchers of all nationalities.

Completed application materials for the 2009 – 2010 scholar year must be received in the Getty Foundation office on or before November 1, 2008.

Application materials and full terms of the GCI scholar program can be found on the Getty Foundation website:

<http://www.getty.edu/grants/research/scholars/researchGCI.html>